PAUL IS SHIPMAN, Edward OLIVER LUCAS, Leoni Editor and Reporter

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1861.

* We are informed on reliable authority that Gen. Buckner has found himself, in hi invasion of Kentucky, deeply disappointed His friends in Louisville and throughout the State gave him the strongest assurances, that, if he would come to this city or even to Bowling Green at the head of a force capable of maintaining its position for a short time, reinforcements would immediately pour in by thousands, rendering his army too powerful to he resisted. Unquestionably he came with the full conviction that these assurances would be verified, but he finds them all falsified. We have good reason to believe, that, at the utmost, not more than a thousand men have joined him since his arrival in our State, and that scarcely any are joining him now. We lenrn, that, in a late speech to soldiers and citizens, he gave utterance to his disappointed feelings in strong terms.

Our rejoicings at the disappointment of the invaders would be hearty and enthusiastic but for the painful reflection that there has been a like disappointment, though not to the same extent, on the part of the friends of the Union. When the startling fact of the invasion of Kentucky was proclaimed, we felt entirely conlident, that, to repel the invasion, there would be instantly such an uprising of gallant men as was never known in Kentucky or in any other State. We felt sure that the great mass of our people, with one loud and appalling shout of indignation, would swarm from plain and hill and valley and mountain and demand to be led ngainst the foe. We looked for a subline and terrible exhibition of the spirit and | leugth and hreadth is enforced rigorously and strength of an insulted and outraged people. We have been not wholly but partially disappointed. Many gallant fellows have fulfilled our expectations, but thousands have failed to meet any gencrous or favorable expectations whatever. These latter, whilst the invaders, standing upon our ken or confisented because of such opinions, menacing the annihilation everywhere of property, I berty, and life, cower down around their own home, fiercely cursing the invasion perhaps, out pretexts, from armed resistance to it. It is an undeniable fact that at least twice ten and their property," the former, in the spirit of al, nre now supine and inert, every man of ever be invaded without his rushing forward to be confiscated and his person imprisoned of risk his life in her defence, would have treated souls, changing their whole natures? This is but in keeping with the rest of the infernal deeds that have marked the whole progress of the rebellion. The whole spirit of the rebellion is a spirit of destruction and rain.

The demolition of this noble structure clear-live indicates, that the rebels, in spite of their vaunted strength at Bowling-Green, are afraid of the advance of Rousseau's troops. If they

The policy so prescribed by the State is aproved by the loyal masses, is applauded by iving and efficient policy. It is as predominant and popular as it is generous. Such is the clemency that rules in the most exposed and imperilled of all the loyal States.

On the other hand, the Richmond Enquirer f the 24th ult. foreshadowed as follows the policy of the Confederate States respecting itizens who entertain Union views:

ALIEN AND OTHER ENEMIES—The forty days having expired, es designated in the l'resident's proclamation, in conformity to what we deemed an extra judicial act of Congress, we are to presume that henceforth no alien enomies will be permitted to go at large within the limits of the Confederats States. Neither should foreigners come amongst us without a declaration of purpose to become citizens. And, above all, no one, not in the smploy of the Government, ought to pass out of our country, else the passport system itself is a farce, and we shall he at the mercy of our snemies.

It seams to us that sliens should now be re It seems to us that sheeps and a now be required to take the each of allegiance to our Government, and that the same test of loyalty mightery judiciously be applied to those amongst us where you to have no to have been to have months any against the ratification of the ordinance of seces against the ratification of the ordinance of secession. Many of our wealthy men opposed secession to the last, and may be still opposed to separation and Southern independence. It this class be not attended to, and if, by one of the vicinsitudes incident to war, the enemy should happen, for however brief a neason, to approach the eapital, we might have the spectacle of at least another nucleus of "reconstructionists." They would came out of their holes end offer protection to the foarful, or attempt to intimidate the timid non-combatante. We should provide for every contingency, and all whe are not friends are enemies. Not only all the wealth, but all the blood of the South is pledged for the redemption of our country. The man who will not light, and he who dares te depreciate the credit of the Government, are eliks traitors. overnment, are eliks Thairons.

There is every reason to believe that the poliev so foreshadowed is now the actual policy of the Confederate States and throughout their itilessly. As will he seen, the policy is a inhuman as the policy of Keutucky is humane Whilst the latter directs that "no citizen shall e molested on account of his political opin ions," that "no citizen's property shall be ta soil, are committing every species of violence and [and that "all penceable citizens who remain at home and attend to their private business, un til legally ealled into the public service, as well as their families, are entitled to, and shall rebut shrinking, upon various pretexts or with- ceive, the fullest protection of the Government in the enjoyment of their lives, their liberties thousand Kentuckians, calling themselves loy- the bloodiest proscription, decleres that no citizen of Union opinions shall be free from molesta whom, if told a yenr ngo that Kentucky would | tion, that every Union citizen's property shall exiled because of his opinions, and that "the the imputation as a mortal insult. (If course Buckner and his Confederat handitti contemplate at present no enterpris in this direction. The destruction of the Green River bridge is conclusive upon that point. But our troops can cross streams without the aid of bridges. "Follow me!" exclaimed the gallant Rousseau, when, in front of his men, he leaped into the Rolling Fork. And "follow mc!" the same bold leader wil exclain, when, in front of his men, he shall leap into the waters of Green River.

FUGITIVE SLAVE RETURNED FROM INDIANA We are pleased to learn that our fellow citizen E. L. Huffman, E.q., recovered his man servant on Friday last, from Indiana, by due process of law; and we are glad to announce the prompt execution of the law by all the Federal efficers having jurisdiction.

Upon application and testimony the warrant was promptly issued, and being placed in the haud of the U.S. Marshal for the State of Indiana, Col. D. G. Rosc, he immediately executed it hy arresting the fugitive and surrendering him to the U.S. Commissioner, R. H. Hall, for trial, and, after a full examination of the testimony of several witnesses relative to the ownership of the slave, and a full reading of the law, he was formally committed to the charge of the Marshal with proper authority to surrender bim to his rightful and legal owner, which was done without one word of

We thank the officers for their prompt dlscharge of duty. The officers of Indiana will faithfully and fearlessly execute the laws of the United States, and her people will defend the rights of Kentucky.

The re-election of Governor Brown, of leorgia, is most significant of the want of onfidence entertained for the Confederate overnment in that State, once so conserva tive and loyal. Some months since Governor Brown published a terrific tirade against Jeff Davis and the leaders of the Richmond cloque whom he charged with designs to create an aristocraey and build up a monarchy upon the ruins of our republican Government. Gov. Brown also peremptorily refused to send forward any more State troops to fight the Confederate battles, and recalled those that had dready been sent forward.

This endorsement of the Governor by the people of Georgia, after such unmistakable evidences of his having become sick and tired of the Confederate military despotism, shows that the State will not follow any ultra lenders, but will be found prepared, at no distant day, wheel again into the Union ranks, from which she was wheedled by some of her impracticable and timid political leaders.

CAMP SHERMAN, FAIR GROUNDS, NEAR LOUISVILLE, Oct. 9, 1861. Having made the necessary errengements, training made the necessary errengements, we are now prepared to pay to each man, when mustered in as a coldier for three years or during the war, one month's full pay in advance. This, with the system of altotment tickets, will enable the nien to leave their families provided for until the next regular pay day.

The camp will be continued at its present lo-cality until the men can be fully uniformed and equipped, when it will be moved to New Haven, where companies or single recruits may report themselves for muster. Having 500 men alrendy in camp, with the advantages offered by the present plan, the regiment must soon be filled and prepared for actual service. We condently expect by the first of next week to be in murch to join the troops al-

THE Bairish PROTECTORATE OF MEXICO -The London Morning Pest of the 24th ult. contains the following article on the governmental enforcement of B.itish claims in Mexico. Comlng from a paper supposed to be Lord Palmerston's REPORT OF COMMANDER BRAINE, OF THE MONmouthpiece, it may be regarded as especially sig-

We are glid to be enalled to state that the terms of a treaty between the Queen, the Emperor of the French, and the Queen of Spain ere in course of strengement for an immediate intervention, by the combined frees of the three awar elses, in the afforts of Mexico. The old stending claims of the British, the French, and the Spanish people against the Mexican republic have at last brough the long suffering of these three powers to au end. The claims of justice and the most intent diplomatic representations have to tally fulled. The tolerance which Western Entrope has so long exhibited towards a country planged into civil wir has been planly abused, and has been initiaken for cowardice and indecision. The Mexican Givernment meanwhile has ion. The Mexican Government measured has found is elf in the persession of ample lunds fithe liquidition of all foreign claims, and the funds are being dissipated by its own systemals malversatlum. The torcide robbery of the property of the English bondholders by the late Gov rument of Miramon, and since tacilly acquis In by the present G vernment of Just 2, his got far towards plecing the Mex c n republic beyon the law of cettors. It was obvious that If co-duct of this description were to be tolerated the would at tuce be an end to ell security in internet onal transactions, or duap recedent be set up for the deliberate repudiation by every foreign government.

the deliberate reputdation by every to sign government of its obligations with this country. It is under these circumstances that the cabinets of London, Parls, and Madrid have taken the resolution which we have already stated.

The manner in which the three allied powers intended to carry out their click is at once the most inexpensive and the most effectual. They have any attention, whether of wasting powder. have no intention whatever of wasting powder and shot by waging a terri mill war upon Mex-ico. Tu land a mill ary force and advance upon the capital is altogether out of their contempla-tion. It would be impossible to deal with Mexico as an organized and established government, with a recognized contre of authority. The intention of the allies, on the organized so send a com-bined navel force into the Gulf of Mexico. This force will be kade, and will, we apprehend, tem-possible occupy the principal parts upon the Gulf. perarily occupy the principal parts upon the Gulf, such as Vera Cruz, Lampico, and one or two others. By these means the allies will us doubt bring the Mexican government to an lumediate acquieseres in hir terms. But whether they hing them to terms, or which ribey do not, will bave agreed for the estisfaction of the outstanding comms is this. The all id powers will sequestrate that customs revenue of the ports in question. They will charge their consuls, or some other authorities, jointly to collect these revenues at the different ports, and these consuls, ection together, will form a sort of international commission, constituted for the purpose at each port. No ship will be able either to cuter or clear at the ports of Vera Cruz, Tampica, &c., without the authority of these cumuls, who will expected as the recognized as the Fanny.

At twenty-five minutes to live P. M., we considered the ports of Vera Cruz, Tampica, &c., without the authority of these cumuls, who will expected as the respected of the proportion of the ports of the por exac —and not only exact, but themselves also receive— he customs dues on such entrances and receive—the customs due on such entrances and clearances. They will, we presume, observe the existing enstoms dutled recognized by Mexican laws, end will throw the proceeds into a common trea cury of their own et each port. They then Intend to retein a given proportion of these proceeds for their respective nations, and to prevover a portion to the Mexican Government. We be have that the addies will retain about forty per the control of the each will not some fifty purceet. cont. of these end will pay over fifty per ceet. to Mexico. This is a liberal arrangement towards Mexico, and it is one while; will reserve to that divernment such a customs revenue as will en-able it still to discharge the expenses of its own civil adulnistration. But it is also an effectual respective concula, after paying over tuits Mexical Government its there of the process, quarter, will derive of the process, quarter, will derive of the process, quarter, will enderent least notifial claims shall have been discharged. A ship-of war or two in the readsteads of ea h of these ports will measure if the authority of the allied consils.

Much of this arrai general, of course, prosumes the collision of the Mexical government. But, if, contrary to all probability, that government with the Mexical povernment with the Mexican government with the Mexican government there will no longer be need of a to ffective black ade, for the an horizy of the consils would spring from a breaky will he will be need of a to ffective black and object the representation of the Mexican government there will no longer be need of a to ffective black and object to the consils would spring from a breaky will he represent the representation in a construction of the means of a block to the consils would spring from a breaky will he representation in a construction of the means of the consils would spring from a breaky will he representation for the value of the experts of Vera Campholl, resigned.

It is probable that the representation for the value of the experts of Vera Campholl, resigned.

REFORT OF COMMANDER BRAINE, OF THE MONTICELLO.

UNITED STATES SHIP MONTICELLO,
OFF CAPE HATTERAS Oct. 5, 1861.
Ser. I have tee honor to inform you that, in obedience to your order of this morning, I stood through the inner channel of Hatteras shoals at 12½ P. M., and stood close along shore to the nor hward, keeping a bright lockout from about 12½ P. M. we discovered everal sailing vessels over the woodland Kine Keet, and at the same time a regiment mirching to the northward, cirrying a rebel flag in their midst, with many stragglers in their rear; elso two tings Inside, flying the same flag. As they came out of the woods of Kine Keet, we ran close in shore and lying the same firs. As they came out of the woods of Kino Keel, we ran close in shore and pened a deliberate fire upon them, at the disance of three quariers of a mile. At our first shell, which f.ll apparently in their midst, they rolled up their flag and scattered, moving rapidly up the beach to the mirhward. Wo followed them, firing rapidly from three guns, driving them up to a clump of woods, in which they tack refuge, end abreast of which their ateamers lay. We now shelled the woods, and could see them symboxising in small boats after their vassels, eviembarking in small boats after their vessels, evi-dently in great confusion and suffering greatly Their steamers now opened hire upon us, liring, Their steamers now opened are upon us, ming, however, but three shots, which fell short. Two boars filled with men were struck by our shells and destroyed. Three more steamers came down the Sound and took position of posite the woods. We were shelling elso twu slops. We continued firing deliberately epon them from 1\(\frac{1}{2}\) P. M. until haf past three P. M., when two men were discovered as the scalesche making signals to us incovered on the seabeach making a gnals to us upposing them to be two of the Indiana regi-tent, we seet en armed boat and crew to bring ment, we seet en armeil boat and crew to bring them off, covering them at the same time with our fire. Upon the boat nearing the beach they to k to the water. One of them was successful in reaching the boat—private Warren O. Baver, Company II, 20th regiment of Indiana troops. The other mac-private Charles White, Company II, 20th regiment Indiana troops—was unfortunately drawned in the surf.

Privete Haver informs me that he was taken risoner on the morning of the 4th; that he wil-essed one shot which was very nestructive. He nessed one shot which was very hestrictive. He states that two of our shells fell into two slops loaded with men, blowing the vessels to pieces and sicking them. Allo, that several others were killed and their horses agen running about the track. He had just escaped from his captors, after shooting the captain of one of the rebel companies. He states that the ceamy were in the greatest confusion rushing width, into the the greatest confusion, rushing wildly into the water, striving to get off to their vessels.

Private Haver now directed me to the point where the rebels were congregated, waiting an opportunity to get off. I opened fire again with succes, scittering them. We were now very second shell told with effect.

Six steamers were now off the point, one of which I recognized as the Fanny.

At twenty-five minutes to live P. M., we consed liring, leaving the enemy scattered along the beach f rupwards of four noises. I fired repositionally at the grount's steamers with our rified carry beach f rupwards of four noises. I fired reportedly at the enemy's steamers with our rifled cannon, a Parrot thirty-pounder, and struck the Fanny, I think once, I found the range of this piece much shert of what I had auticipated, many of the shot turning end over ond, and not exceeding much the range of the smooth bere thirty-two pounder.

I enclose hotewith the memorandem of the amount of ammunition expended tu-day. I am, respectfully, your obedient servant.
